MR. GARDNER HERE ON WAY TO RALEIGH

Mr. O. Max Gardner of Shelby, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, passed through Hickory Sunday en route to Raleigh, where he speaks tonight. Mr. Gardner has been doing mighty fine work for the party this fall and reports from all the points at which he has spoken agree that no finer speaker has been heard in the campaign. Mr. Gardner has been mentioned as a candidate for governor four years from now, but he is not pushing the matter, though his numerous friends are working for him. Mr. Gardner spoke here a week ago, being the guest of his old-time friend, Mr. Roy Abernethy, with whom he was associated at A. and M. College and the University of North Carolina. Both are famous athletes, and are the warmest personal friends.

IRISH IMMIGRANTS RETURN

(By Associated Press.) Dublin, Oct. 16.—The Irish Times reports the arrival of regular weekly batches of men and women and stated to be commencing returned from the United States in consequence of the strict requirements of the American immigration law. Some of the home-comers, it is said, will try again when their health gives better prospect of satisfying the American medical officers.

CITY PRESSING CLUB

If a vote were to be cast for the most popular roofing, there would be an overwhelming plurality in favor of CERTAIN-TEED Roofing.

This is indicated by the fact that "The General" makes 4 of all the asphalt roll roofing made in America. The balance is scattered among 39 other manufacturers. Each year CERTAIN-TEED rolls up a strikingly increasing number of advocates, because this type of roof is coming to be recognized as the most efficient covering for all kinds of buildings, with either flat or pitched roofs.

Certain-teed

is clean and sanitary, costs less to buy, less to lay, less to maintain and less per year of life. It is guaranteed for 10 or 15 years, according to type of roof.

DOES HE LIVE HERE?

Frank Waller was a unique character. An honest comment is difficult to make in a newspaper. We do not want to say an unkind thing about him. He put nothing into this world and got nothing out of it. His hoarded wealth brought him an early grave, and he could take none of it with him. He was honest as he said himself, obeyed the laws of the land when they cost him nothing, neighbors with no one, trusted no one, got all he could and kept all he got. His uppermost philosophy of life was a false one; that is, that a man with money in his pockets must of necessity have friends and happiness.

He was a con man, a man who was nothing but a high cost of living, never spent a cent foolishly, never invested or gambled. Many a lad of 10 has seen more of life worth living than he. He belonged to no societies, fraternal or religious. He enjoyed making good deals in buying and selling. He was sober, industrious, independent, a stickler for the last pound of flesh allowed by law. He has passed to his reward. —The Marquette Tribune.

TO BE BISHOP OF OMAHA

(By Associated Press.) Manila, Oct. 16.—The most Reverend Jeremiah J. Hart, archbishop of the Philippines, will leave this month for the United States to become bishop of Omaha. He has terminated 13 years of service as the first American arch-bishop of the Islands.

There is, so far, no intimation as to his successor, but there is an extensive movement among native churchmen to secure the appointment of a Filipino.

NO NEW ISSUES RAISED

BY SUBMARINE RAID
London, Oct. 16.—Two operations of the German submarine boat U-53 off the American coast raise no new issues as far as the British government is concerned, in the opinion of Lord Robert Cecil, minister of war trade, who discussed with the Associated Press the latest development in the relations between Great Britain and the United States. Lord Robert declared that this form of warfare on merchant vessels violated international law as it was recognized by Great Britain and the United States before the war and was still objectionable to Great Britain, but no more so than when it is done on this side of the water.

Referring to reports of meetings between Sir Richard Crawford, commercial attaché of the British embassy at Washington, with American bankers and business men, Lord Robert said no departure in principle had been made from the British blacklist measures, but it could be safely said that the general policy leaned in the direction of a modification rather than an extension of the blacklist. The reply to the American blacklist note was now on the way to Washington and this answered the American criticism of the principles behind the measure. As regards the administration of the blacklist, Lord Robert said Washington had forwarded very few individual complaints about it.

Replying to the charge that Great Britain is violating its equal treatment provisions of the Anglo-American treaty of commerce and navigation of 1815 by granting license to Japanese and French exporters while refusing permits to American shippers for similar goods, Lord Robert said that such restrictions were in the hands of the board of trade, but that he was personally of the opinion that such treaties lost validity during a state of war.

Messrs. Jas. C. Shuford, J. C. Miller, Orin Sigmom, George Blackwelder, Robert Martin motored to Charlotte today to see Ringling's circus.
